Senior Play

The annual senior libel play provides the students with the opportunity to impress faculty members for an afternoon of good-natured fun and some sweet revenge.

Dean Graham in a moment of amusement.

Norman Friedman as Sidney Sosnwell puts Bill Toohey to sleep.

Our faculty through student eyes.

Professors Smith, Knowlton, Baselon and Phedlill laugh it up.

This year's show, which played to a standing-room-only crowd, took the form of a HUAC type hearing into alleged subversive activities of faculty members of a nameless law school near the banks of the Passaic River.

A shy, sensitive Jack Madden portraying Professor Cohen.

Sports Activities

This year brought an increased participation in organized sports on the part of law students. The Second year class touch football team continued its reign as class champions though it took a two out of three game effort to defeat the First year class. The defending fraternity touch football champions, Phi Alpha Delta were shut out by Phi Delta Phi. The winners savored their victory over thehog of beer bought by the losers.

A round robin basketball tournament between the three classes was initiated this year. The trophy went to the Third year class team after a close, hard fought game with the Second year team.

Bruce Matthews sinks the clinching basket for the Third year team in the championship game.

Ed Laird, who quarterbacked the victorious Second year team sweeps around end behind the blocking of Mike Hayes, Don Ryan, and Marty Cohen.

John Schindler of Phi Alpha Delta tries to move the ball against Phi Delta Phi but the latter's strong defense led to a shut-out 18-0 victory for Phi Delta Phi.

Mike Hayes presents the basketball trophy to Tom Ashley of the Third year team.
the first fall
when perry masonic visions give way
to the brutal basics of offer and acceptance and blackacre's turf
you laughed at the name sturgid from unceasing barter the ravages of dobbins hoofs meanings intent upon incusions exclusions all dragged screaming from a protesting statute which any fool can see plainly says yet when nashville decrees two hour metered parking she lies
other contradicitions
one just doesn't violate the kings peace
no harm in trying ou indefinable hypothetical

mr jones
if a
gives blackacre
you no longer laugh

to b
what has a given b
would you please repeat that first part professor i didn't quite catch it pain grey days of confession and avoidance
interest inconspicuous
preparation less
a class of ill legal hearts beating together sharply in deaf silence
as recitation is requested im sorry sir
i haven't read
that one

1 novitates answer
because law school is a
becoming
from incoherence to
gibb incoherence
from don't know to
well i will tell you
and beyond to obfuscatory heights
law school builds minds when you discover your fiancee ceaselessly repeating two can live as cheaply as one
has been stating a
conclusion
cynicism
when you find a
judge
over charging
finals
law and world order
bombed it
to find a three
on the bulletin board
six months later
the thrill of competition if it hadn't of been for that four six
if of been invited
sure
im a respondent what are you im your partner stupid
sophia wise moro
who knows more than a second year law student a third year law student who knows checks male
uses spring trusts res
frantic caught
between war and peace
jungle and job
law lien years but
wary of arguments
emotion-ridden
suspicious of papers
before he signs them
of appearances
the maos rose-cheeked santa retires to a toilet

to renew his cornely blush with sneaky pete
of cant
and prayerful sistermary relinquishes a much admired genius for novel and flashlight beneath
convent blankets
of law
and lone ranger
after subduing the haddies urinates discreetly
behind paper maché jalls
a third year student who awakes some june morning 11:30

to find
despite the cuts
despite the doubts
despite himself
dammit all
he's grown

adam lawrence