needless to comment here of the fine spirit that prevailed, and the enjoyment had by all in attendance. An affair at the Delta Theta Phi Fraternity House will long be remembered as a gala time. The Combined Senior Class Dance is, no doubt, the most prominent from the standpoint of social success.

The end is in sight. The clouds have disappeared; the sun has broken through, and now we stand on the summit, looking back on the road we have just travelled, a trifle regretfully, a bit sorrowfully, but ready at last to face whatever lies before us. In parting may we express to Dean Harris and to our faculty our grateful appreciation for their untiring efforts in our behalf, for their patience with our mistakes, and for their wise counsel in times of need.

MILTON D. VALENTINE.
WORD FROM THE DEAN

March 26, 1934

Mr. William Reid
Editor-in-Chief, "The Legacy"
New Jersey Law School
Newark, New Jersey
Dear Bill:

The first quarter century of the New Jersey Law School, which we have this year been signaling with appropriate ceremonies, has given us a responsibility and an opportunity of which we are all deeply conscious.

In saying good-bye to the Class of 1924 as they go forth to take their places in many and varied fields, I cannot but feel that they, when another quarter century shall have rolled around, will be bearing the brunt of affairs, while those now at the helm will have passed on, or grown grey.

I hope all will do their part manfully, both in the world of affairs and in their narrower spheres as alumni of this school. If we can ever serve them, they have but to call upon us.

Sincerely,

Michael Andrus
