Princeton Debate Postponed

New Date Is February 9th

Professor Frederick A. Good, chairman of the varsity debating team, announced that the annual debate that was scheduled for Princeton University for Friday, January 12th has been postponed due to an inability to secure the Old First Presbyterian Church for that evening.

However, the debate will take place at the above-named church on Thursday evening, February 9th, 1934, at 8:30 P.M.

The topic will be, "Resolved, that American citizens join in a boycott of German goods." The Oxford plan of debating will be employed.

The team representing New Jersey Law School is composed of Edward Bunker '34, Edgar Donahue '36, Milton Valentine '34 and Milton Yarlow '34.

The reputation of the debating team of New Jersey Law School has induced a number of challenges from several leading universities in the metropolitan area.

Jack Steier, Senior Passes Away

Jack Steier, a member of the Senior Morning class, died at the Barnert Hospital, Paterson on December 28, 1933. He had suffered from a blood disease about six months.

Mr. Steier, a resident of Clifton, was 22. He had attended Clifton High School and Dans College. He entered New Jersey Law School in 1931.

He was active in extra-curricular activities while attending high school and college. He also was a member of Wig and Mace.

Mr. Steier was a staunch Republican, and was being considered as a future candidate for councilman in Clifton.

He had surprised the greatest hopes of his doctors by his great struggle against great odds, and was considered on his way to recovery when a sudden relapse set in.

He leaves his parents and a sister surviving.

Students Reject $5. Activity Fee

Proposal Fails To Get Majority Vote

During the week of January 9th, the Class Organizations Committee, headed by J. Leonard Weiss conducted a referendum vote by which the student body rejected a proposal to increase the student activity fee from $4 to $5, and to place the additional monies, to be collected with the third quarter's tuition, in a fund to defray the expenses of a dance under the auspices of the Student Council, which every member of the school, accompanied by his or her guest, would be privileged to attend with full charge. The proposal offered by the Student Council would have become operative if two-thirds of those voting approved it.

The final returns showed that 428 students voted, of which 243 favored rejection of the plan while 185 approved it.

Analysis of the returns, as set forth below shows that all the freshman classes were decidedly against acceptance, while the juniors and seniors of the afternoon and evening session favored adoption, but only by a majority. Furthermore, the morning seniors and junior ballots indicated that a majority voted in the negative.

Many N. J. L. S. Graduates Pass the Bar

Two Undergraduates Are Also Successful

On January 3rd, 1934, the State Board of Bar Examiners announced that 202 persons who passed its October examinations to qualify as attorneys, in which 419 participated, the successful percentage was approximately 47.3%.

The names of the New Jersey Law School's graduates compose the greater part of the list.

The two undergraduates who qualified are Milton Miller, of Paterson, Senior Afternoon, and Julius Malkin of Hackensack, Senior Evening.

An unusual record was set by the Senior Afternoon class of 1933. Nineteen of the twenty-one aspirants of that class were successful.

Sir Frederick Whyte Speaks

5 Honorary Degrees Awarded

Sir Frederick Whyte, former member of the British House of Commons and distinguished English barrister addressed the meeting held Wednesday evening, January 17 in the Old First Presbyterian Church which opened New Jersey Law School's Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Celebration. Invitations were sent to the school's 3,500 alumni and to representatives of other institutions in the metropolitan area.

Sir Frederick is a Knight Commander of the Star of India and at Student Council

"KEY-GRAB" FURNISHES WEDGE

In the first open revolt of the year from the "new deal" economy program that has characterized the activities of the Student Council thus far, the Councillors, at their regular meeting at the Newark Athletic Club Tuesday night, January 9th, voted 11-9 to award themselves the so-called "Student Council Keys" as a self-confessed honor "for serving as a member of the Student Council", in the words of an advertisement. As a result of this action amazement and sincere disapproval is being felt in many quarters of the school body, and less kindly commentators are not hesitating to characterize the action as inexcusable "key-grabbing."

The passage of the measure came as a climax to a turbulent session in which every effort of persuasion and every parliamentary device was employed to head off the result, culminating in the defeat of Chairman Sher on a vote of confidence. Feeling on both sides of the proposition was so sharp that the vote on it was taken by roll-call and recorded, and following its passage every member of the Special Committee on Awards with one exception rose to request the acceptance of his resignation as a member of the Committee.

The record of the vote was as follows:

NAY: Zeller, Engelman, Goodman, Simon, Zazzano, Marryott, Dwyer, Rubinstein, San Filippo (the last three being alumni members.)

NOT VOTING: Cohen.

Mr. Sher did not vote by reason of his position as Chairman. Mr. Konvitz had left the meeting before the vote was taken. Mr. Maher was not in attendance.

The clash on the key proposition carried the meeting into such tension at the end of the session, that other action taken by the Council during the course of the evening has been relegated to relative obscurity, even though otherwise significant.

The Council voted for the abolition of the Inter-Law Council, subject to the approval of the student body by referendum; voted to create a fund for the subsidization of the University Press; and voted in favor of the resignation of the Student Council Keys.

The full text of the resolutions and the meeting will be published in the next issue of the Barrister.

SIR FREDERICK WHYTE

one time was secretary to Winston Churchill. He is a member of the Liberal Party. He held honorary degrees from his own university, Edinburg, McGill University, University of Michigan, and Dartmouth College.

The program included the conferring of degrees on distinguished Jerseymen. Richard D. Currier, President, presided and George S. Harris, Dean, presented the candidates.

The degree of doctor of laws (LLD) was conferred on five outstanding men in the State. The honored were A. Harry Moore, Governor of the State of New Jersey, who received his LLD in 1924 from New Jersey Law School, and is at present a member of the faculty of that school.

(Continued on Page 4)

Three Undergraduates Are Also Successful

On January 3rd, 1934, the State Board of Bar Examiners announced that 202 persons who passed its October examinations to qualify as attorneys, in which 419 participated, the successful percentage was approximately 47.3%.

The names of the New Jersey Law School's graduates compose the greater part of the list.

The two undergraduates who qualified are Milton Miller, of Paterson, Senior Afternoon, and Julius Malkin of Hackensack, Senior Evening.

An unusual record was set by the Senior Afternoon class of 1933. Nineteen of the twenty-one aspirants of that class were successful.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the publication and issuance of "Lex Locis" be abolished.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution shall not become operative unless and until approved by a majority of those voting at a school-wide referendum to be conducted during February by the Class Organization Committee.

Many of the group favoring the extinction of the publication argued that the usefulness of the book was limited to the incoming freshmen each year, and that much of the information contained in the hand-book was in the school catalogue. Furthermore, that information which is original in "Lex Locis" could easily be brought to the students by the Barrister.

(Continued on Page 4)
THE BARRISTER

Vol. VIII, No. 6

NEWARK, N. J., FEBRUARY 28, 1934

Subscription $1.07 Per Year

Harmony Returns to Student Council

Legacy Contracts

A regular meeting of the Student Council was held on Tuesday evening, February 21st, at which time the question of the renewal of the Student Council's legacy contracts for the current year was considered. The vote was unanimous in favor of the renewal of the contracts.

N.J.L.S. Debates with Princeton

The New Jersey Law School held a debate on February 28th, as part of the N.J.L.S. Debates series, against Princeton University. The topic of the debate was whether the use of animals in medical research should be prohibited or regulated. The New Jersey Law School team, led by Richard D. Currier, president of the law school, presented a strong case for the prohibition of the use of animals in medical research.

Seal & Scroll Adopts Plan

At the last Student Council meeting, held on February 15th, the Student Council adopted a new plan for the administration of the seal and scroll system. The plan includes the establishment of a committee to oversee the administration of the seal and scroll system, and the implementation of new procedures for the issuance of seals and scrolls.

Seal of Approval

The Seal of Approval is a new initiative that was adopted by the Student Council in response to student concerns regarding the administration of the seal and scroll system. The Seal of Approval is a system by which students can receive a seal of approval for their work, which will be recognized by the New Jersey Law School.

NEW JERSEY LAW SCHOOL

SETH BOYD SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

DANA COLLEGE

College and Professional Training

Bachelor of Laws

Bachelor of Arts

College of Arts and Sciences, Administration

and the

Selected Graduate Program in Business Administration

Day and Evening Classes

For further information, address AGNES D. WATT, Registrar

40 Baxter Street, Newark, New Jersey

On Telephone Mitchell 2-6143

J. FREDERICK WIGHTMAN

Edward D. Druffel, President

Acting President

A. M. Voss, Dean

Ira E. Reynolds, Secretary

James E. W. Norcross, Treasurer

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.

The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place. The Legacy contracts have not been renewed. The committee has not been maintained, but the Seal of Approval has been established in its place.