

The Barrister

Vol. IV

NEWARK, N. J., OCTOBER 10, 1929

No. 2

Around the School

P. K.

The two new additions to the faculty have proved quite popular. . . . Former Governor A. Harry Moore has won the students just like he won votes in New Jersey not so long ago. . . . Franklin J. Marryott has been received enthusiastically by the Junior Evening Class. . . . Wonder how many know that Milton Bruck won the Corpus Juris Prize last year. . . . Milt is a fine student and is to be highly commended. . . . What a nice prize—a set of Corpus Juris. . . . Runners up were Abner Brodie and Herman Cooper. . . . Another engagement, this time Helen Dvorin. . . . Wonder who the lucky man is? . . . Funny how the girls in that Senior Morning Class seemed to all have paired off. . . . Charlie Mason is getting to be a regular globe trotter. Just back from Germany he says that this trip was the best he has ever taken. . . . Bill Mason, the Freshman Morning president, is Charlie's brother. . . . It is rumored around that Professor Tyree has found Dobbin. . . . That ought to be welcome news to the enemies of Blackacre. . . . Pat seems to have the Freshmen well in hand despite the two year college requirements. . . . One asked him where he could get fitted for a lawsuit. . . . Jimmie Rosen, editor-in-chief of Legacy, has appointed Joseph Weisberg as business manager. . . . Professor Parnell informs us that he spent the vacation at Nova Scotia "playing with nature." . . . Why, Reg, how could you! . . . Letters to the BARRISTER are welcomed. . . . But sign your name. . . . By the way, what has happened to the Dean's favorite expression, "Rats." . . . The Freshmen Theme Song is "Bigger and Better than Ever." . . . Positions on BARRISTER staff are the result of work. . . . Position of assistant business manager still open. . . . Does everybody know that Sidney Kirschen won the Equity Prize? Watch for the debating league contests soon to be started by the BARRISTER. . . . Go out for your class team even if you only want the experience. . . . If you know any Alumni tell him about the subscription plan of THE BARRISTER. . . . That's all for this time, but watch out next time. . . . We see all . . . and print all. . . . Contributions gratefully received.

Lawyer: "When I was a boy my highest ambition was to be a pirate."
Client: "You're in luck. It isn't every man who can realize the dreams of his youth."

Results of Freshman Elections

BILL MASON TO HEAD MORNING CLASS

RUBINSTEIN AND STITES LEAD OTHER DIVISIONS

Freshman Morning Officers

The Freshman Class elections, held on Wednesday, October 2, resulted in the choice of William P. Mason as president of the Freshman Morning Class. William Mason is the son of the late Dean Mason and a brother of Charles B. Mason, president of the Student Council.

Mr. Mason completed his college studies at Rutgers last June, receiving an A.B. degree. While at that college he was captain of the freshman football team; on the varsity football team during his sophomore and junior years; he filled the office of chairman of the Soph Hop Committee; he sang in the University Glee Club; and was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Bill will undoubtedly carry on, during his three years at the Law School, the fine record set by his father and brother.

Melvin D. Bloomfield, of Orange, was elected vice-president of the class; Miss Natalie J. Lifshus, of South Orange, secretary; and Alfred Tellone, of Newark, treasurer. All of these officers received their preliminary education at the Pre-Legal Department of the New Jersey Law School.

Freshman Afternoon Officers

President—Maurice Rubinstein.
Vice-President—Mr. Brennan.
Secretary—Miss Natalie Baron.
Treasurer—Mr. Eichler.

Freshman Evening Officers

In the Freshman Evening Class, Richard M. Stites, of Plainfield, was elected president. He was president of both his first and second year classes at the Pre-Legal School.

Nathan Kessel, of Elizabeth, was made vice-president; Pensiero Calcia, of Hawthorne, secretary; and Charles Breslow, of Passaic, treasurer.

All the officers of the Freshman Evening Class were students at the Pre-Legal School, Mr. Kessel having been secretary of the Sophomore Evening Class.

For a parallel between Nebuchadnezzar's tree and the Statutes of Uses, see Chudleigh's case, 1 Rep. 1346.

Marryott Appointed To Faculty TO TEACH EQUITY

Among the additions to the Law School faculty, a most popular one is that of Franklin J. Marryott, who will make his professional debut in teaching the course of Equity to the Evening Division of the Junior Class. Mr. Marryott is at present Assistant Dean and in such position has won the confidence and support of both the administration and the students. Last year he served as assistant to Dean Harris and also as Administrative Treasurer of Student Council activities.

Mr. Marryott is a graduate of Rutgers University of the class of 1924 and holds the degree of Bachelor of Letters. At Rutgers he was a leader of campus activities. He was a member of the Student Council, President of the Association of Campus Activities, President of the Band, President of the Musical Clubs, member of the Junior Prom Committee, member of the History Club, Honor Student for four years, and member of Cap and Skull, the senior honorary society. Mr. Marryott is a member of Chi Phi college fraternity.

He entered Law School in the fall of 1924. While attending Law School he taught at the Middlesex County Vocational School at New Brunswick.

Mr. Marryott was admitted to the New Jersey Bar last year. His intimate knowledge of the school and his personal contact with the students make his appointment both popular and prudent.

This is Hard on Both of Us

"Did you present your account to the defendant?" asked a lawyer.
"I did, sir."
"And what did he say?"
"He told me to go to the devil."
"And what did you do then?"
"Well then, I came to you."

Seth Boyden and Pre-Legal Schools Open With Large Enrollment

The new Seth Boyden School of Business began its day and evening sessions October 3, at 40 Rector street, with an opening class of 105 students, graduates of more than 40 high schools. Seth Boyden School is the only institution in Northern New Jersey offering the four-year course of collegiate business training leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Permission to confer this degree was granted by the State Board of Education last spring to the New Jersey Law School, sponsors of the new institution. In addition to the four-year degree course, a two-year special course in secretarial studies is also offered.

Additions to the faculty were announced at the offices of Dr. T. Lawrence Davis, Dean of the Boston University College of Practical Arts and Letters, who is director, and Herbert C. Hunsaker, associate director. They include William T. Nunn, formerly of the faculty of the School of Business of the University of Pittsburgh, and John G. Yenchar, both of whom will lecture in economics. Mr. Nunn will also devote part of his time to teaching in the School of Commerce in New York University. He has written numerous articles in the New Republic, Nation and American Mercury. After securing degrees from Oglethorpe and Columbia Universities, Mr. Nunn spent four years teaching in Japan. Mr. Yenchar is a graduate of Mercersburg Academy and Princeton University and was formerly secretary to Dr. W. M. Irvine, head master at Mercersburg.

Other members of the faculty include George R. Esterly, formerly of the University of Pittsburgh, who will be director of the evening session and Professor of Accounting. Miss Elizabeth Baker, former director of Secretarial Studies at the Scudder School in New York will assume the same duties here. Edward H. Zabriski, Professor of History; Frederick J. Gaudet, Assistant Professor in Psychology; Stephen DeWitt Stephens, Professor of English; and Frederick T. McGill, Jr., Assistant Professor of English.

The students representing over 40 high schools come not only from cities located throughout New Jersey, but also as far distant as Springfield, Mass., Detroit, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. The largest enrollment is from Newark with South Side leading as the high school sending the most students. Other cities represented are Elizabeth, Irvington, Perth Amboy, Jersey City, Morristown, Passaic and Paterson. Many students also come from preparatory schools, among which are, Seton Hall, Newark Prep, Blair Academy, St. Benedict's and Upsala.

PRE-LEGAL

The Pre-Legal Department of the New Jersey Law School opened on October 1, with a total enrollment of 500 students. Of this number about 300 are in the freshman class. There is no appreciable increase over the enrollment of last year.

Three new professors have been added to the faculty of the school, it was announced by Dean Madison C. Bates, in the departments of Geology, English and History.

Mr. Donald M. Fraser, appointed assistant professor of geology, received his A.B. and A.M. degrees at the University of Oregon. Mr. Fraser taught at Occidental College, Los Angeles, and at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Paul W. Stoddard, who was appointed assistant professor of English, received an A.B. degree at Yale University, a Master degree in English at Yale, and a Master degree in Education at Columbia University. He was five years the dramatic critic for the New Haven Journal-Courier. Mr. Stoddard has had a number of monographs published, including one on "Emerson's Influence as a Lecturer," and on "The Place of Lyceum in American Life."

Mr. Charles H. Mueller, appointed instructor of history and director of student activities, is a graduate of Columbia College. He taught at Seth Low Junior College, Brooklyn, and at the Lincoln School, Columbia's model school, connected with Teachers' College.

A Vote of Appreciation

The present BARRISTER Board wishes to thank Abraham Mankowitz, attorney-at-law, for the time and effort he contributed toward making the former BARRISTERS of interest to the Alumni. Mr. Mankowitz was the Alumni Editor and aided greatly in making our Alumni issue a tremendous success.